

Monitoring of job placement opportunities at the University of Padua

mario.pividori@unipd.it

Since 1994

The AlmaLaurea interuniversity consortium helps provide the administrations of its member institutions, accreditation bodies and government agencies and commissions with reliable and timely documentary evidence on which to base decision-making processes and planning of activities, with particular reference to training and services for students.

AlmaLaurea also works to facilitate and democratise young people's access to the Italian and international labour market.
